To whom it may concern

Re: Claire Mohan-Ram (D.O.B. 04.01.2007)

It is my great pleasure to provide a reference for Claire Mohan-Ram. I have known Claire for the past year, since the start of my role as Principal of Pembroke School, where Claire has been a student since 2011.

Claire is a reliable and diligent leader, never shirking responsibility for the tasks that she is assigned to; she is also very willing to take on new responsibilities in her capacity as a leader, and this was evidenced in her time as House Captain in 2022. She is currently a Senior Patrol Leader with Scouts and a member of the Social Justice Committee at the school, emphasising her care, warmth and respected leadership capacity.

An outstanding softball player, Claire has excelled in this sport for many years, achieving MVP awards across multiple age groups and clubs in recent years. Most recently she was also named Most Consistent Player in her Under 18 team with the Sturt Falcons. In conjunction with this elite sporting commitment, Claire is also active in the School's co-curricular program, specifically as a netballer and athlete (Javelin).

Claire is a talented performer and singer, and has been involved in Concert and Chamber Choirs, as well as many major school musical performances since 2017. Her quality performances have also extended beyond school, including the annual Carols by Candlelight event and in A Midsummer Night's Dream with the State Opera, no less.

Claire has maintained a diligent approach to her studies, completing formative work on time and keeping up with ongoing assessment. This year she has chosen a suite of subjects that she connects with and engages strongly with; her enthusiasm and effort have already been evident and excellent. Claire has consistently achieved excellent results in her high school studies and I expect that this will continue. She has identified a desire to pursue multiple tertiary study pathways in the areas of business and veterinary science, and is keen to travel overseas to achieve this goal.

A fine servant of her community, Claire volunteers and raises funds, both in and out of school, to support causes such as Backpack for Kids, The Hutt St Centre, Walk a Mile in My Boots and Taboo. She willingly gives her own time and effort to ensure that others are able to live richer and more supported lives.

Claire is a highly capable, loyal and resilient young person who is keen to try new experiences and challenge herself. She is an inclusive leader amongst her peers, and universally respected for this. I would have no hesitation in recommending Claire as a candidate for your institution; she will, undoubtedly, continue to make a meaningful contribution and be an important member of your community.

Yours sincerely
